CAMP NEAR SPARTA, Va., Priday, April 25, 1902. cas reports that Jackson, after flying from our advancing colonis on Friday last, pushed forward to one reserve that Jackson, after flying from our ade mile north of Harrisonburg, where a turnpike branches to the left, passing Magangher on the south fork of the Shenandonh and the Blue Ridge, and running thence to Gordouville.

Jackson's wagon train had been pushed toward Staunton, but hearing that that town was in possez rion of the Union troops, he remanded it to Harrisonburg. At an early bour on Saturday morning, Jackhis whole force and train, took the Corwille pike, and at latest accounts had reached

On Saturday night a squadron of the 1st Vermont Cavalry, while scouting the Luray road beyond Mas-Mountain, fell in with a body of the en- PANIC emy's cavalry. A skirmish ensued, resulting in the capture of seven of the enemy and eleven of their None of our men were burt; but a Licuteuent had his home shot nuder him.

The Paymester of the Vermont Cavalry arrived at mp yesterday, to the great delight of the Green

A train containing shoes, stockings, &c., for Gen-Williams's division, reached Mount Jackson on Fri-They will be distributed to-day. The stone turnpikes of this region are very destructive to shoes.

ather since Friday has been very inchem- REBEL REPORT OF THE AFFAIR. owing to a prevailing north-easter, the dampsting tents and clothing, and chilling the bodies of the men. There are lond calls for the restoration of the whisky ration.

The inhabitants of this lovely and fertile valley, although they gave an almost ununimous vote for A facilive black, just arrived from Portsmouth, Secession, now sincerely regret it, and appear well brings The Petersburg Express of yesterday, which pleased in the belief that the war in Virginia is at an end. Fresh meats and breadstuffs abound in this section, and the owners are not disposed to conceal or spirit them away beyond our from Rockingbam and the surrounding counties, pletely suspended. Large numbers of them daily come into our lines and deliver themselves up. It is stated that hundreds of from Ashby's scouts, only awaiting an opportunity to were destroyed. escape and claim protection from Gen. Banks. One who came in vestorday reported that he found a cave a few miles hence, where were concealed sixteen refugees and deserters, who will probably come into

A portion of Ashby's cavalry are scouting both | The negro bringing the above, reports that the movements, and endeavering to catch deserters. The

The refugees and deserters are turned over to Lieut.-Col. Batchelder's (Provost Marshal) department, and examined by Col. Clark, of Gen. Banks's

Dr. Baxter, Inte Assistant Surgeon of the Wisconthis Department, and is temporarily stationed at follows:

It is a fact worthy of notice that the Robel hospitals ings have been recently constructed on the most sternation of the inhabitants." approved plan, being lathed and plastered and did into appropriate wards. The ceilings are high, and the ventilation perfect. They are sufficient to Wagons are actively collecting forage and other supplies, which are more abundant here than they Shenandoah and Frederick Counties.

A Union hosters, who escaped from Jackson on Saturday morning, reports his force at that time six miles east of Harrisonburg, which place he left in a

The Union bostages taken by Jackson from Winchester and the valley-many of whom are sixty years old and upward, sick and crippled-were barbarously compelled to march on foot behind the

Crawford, eight miles south of the town, the bridge over a branch of the south fork of the Shenandoah breveted Captain in July, 1848. He was also woundwas found burnt, and the stream too deep and rapid ed in the attack on the De Bolea Gate. On the to cross. A bridge over another branch of the same 18th of December, 1854, he resigned his connection ribune.

Vem-Wor

Vol. XXII....No. 6,572.

NEW-YORK, MONDAY, APRIL 28, 1862.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

Our Gunboats Pass Fort Jackson.

GREAT EXCITEMENT AT NEW-ORLEANS.

THEIR ARRIVAL BEFORE THE CITY

AMONG THE CITIZENS.

Immense Destruction of Property.

THE REBELS BURN THEIR COTTON AND STEAMBOATS.

contains the following dispatch:

Monitor, Friday, April 25, 1862. The enemy passed Fort Jackson at 4 o'clock yes-The Rebel Jackson's retreat from this place had a Orleans the excitement was boundless. Martial beneficial effect on the volunteers and drafted men law was not in full force, and business was com

All the cotton and steamboats, excepting such as them are now in the Massametten Mountains, hiding were necessary to transport coin, ammunition, &c.,

> At 1 o'clock to-day the operator bade us good by saving that the enemy had appeared before the city. This is the last we know regarding the fall. Will send particulars as soon as they can be had.

sides of the mountain near Harrisonburg, watching our Robels have two iron-clad steamers nearly com prain body, however, are believed to have gone with pleted, and that it is believed that the Merrimac will JOHN E. WOOL.

M. Stanton, Secretary of War:

I have just returned from the camp opposite Fred ericksburg. I was told The Richmond Examiner ain 3d, has been appointed Medical Purveyor for of the 26th had been received in town, announcing a

"New-Orleans taken. Great destruction of prop are models of comfort, convenience, and cleanliness, crty, cotton, and stemmboats. Steamboats enough At Mount Jackson three large two story frame build- saved to take away the ammunition. Great con

Boston, Saturday, April 26, 1862.

A Ship Island letter of the 6th inst. states that and the venture of the patients, and will be occusecommodate six hundred patients, and will be occuGen. Williams's Brigade left there on the 2d inst.

MANSSIELD LOVELL.

The Major-General in command of the Rabel forces at New-Orleans is Mansfield Levell, who, it may be This act has caused great indignation in our army, and loud cries are made for retaliation upon promitent Secessionists hereabout.

Hammencage Friday, April 25, 1862.

Last night a strong reconnecisance was made from Newmarket toward Stannton. On reaching Mount Crawford, eight miles south of the town, the bridge some cases falling down from sheer exhaustion. Rams and G. W. Smith formerly Scient Commission. From sheer exhaustion. stream was also burnt. This was done last Tuesday evening, not by the Rebels, but by the citizens, as maded by persons in the neighborhood.

It was ascertained from citizens, that yesterday bim in this project, and when the plans fell through, Leva assertion from citizen, the systematic properties of light of the light of ligh

EXPLANATORY NOTES

STATUTE MILES

THORTH COLTON NY

Pike closes the Higolets Pars.
Macomb closes the Chef Menteur.
eric Bienvenue closes the Bayon Bienvenue evenue closes the Bayon Bienvenue. 6 closes the Bayon Durré. sociatelle covers the Road to New Orleans and Fort Philip close the River.

rechoner Saras brune-away countination, Schooler Incer-Acting Master A. Phloney, communities, Schooler Maries, E. S. Wanter H. G. Whitmore, D.

Form Acting Master, H. E. Williams, command or Master's Master, J. L. Perkins, Joseph Mass, Am. is. so Henry Janes - Acting Master, Lewis Pennington, ling; Acting Muster's Sister, R. N. Spate, A. Soper, examinating i Acting Master's Sister, R. N. Spate, A. Soper, Z. Predmore.

Schwauer Don Staith—Acting Master, G. W. Brown, commanding Acting Master's Mates, W. Brown, Erick Orbitelson, B. Schwett.
Risenser Heterara, flagship of Commander Porter, Lieu. Ges. Brown commanding of Commander Porter, Lieu. Ges. Brown commanding Lieu. John Gresska Lieu. John Gresska Lieu. John Gresska Lieu. Schward Win. B. Renchaw Commander Win. B. Renchaw Commander.

to pay for the negroes, and to any interference with commanding the division may well be proud of them, as I am, and trust to the successful exhibition of Slavery. I infer that they are quite of their other soldierly qualities when we meet the ready to give any additional guaranties, and to concede anything the South may desire to perpetuate I have no distinction to make among the Slavery. If this is the semiment of the country, and ments of my brigade. The duties of some Slavery. If this is the semiment of the country, and the war is to be thus concluded, it will not only disappoint the friends to our country throughout the appoint the friends to our country throughout the world, but entail lasting trouble and difficulty upon our own people which will end only in the destruction of the Government. It is all in vain; you may consider the country throughout the property of the country throughout the behaved alike with the greatest coolinese, gallantry, obedience, and fortitude, they are all equally deserving of my warmest gratitude and confidence, and I desire so to present them to the commanding control. the war is to be thus concluded, it will not only disry peace, but there will be no permanent peace ntil Slavery is entirely rooted out. When the people make up their minds that the Union is of more count than the institution of Slavery, they will

THE ADVANCE TO YOUNG'S MILL. GEN. DAVIDSON'S OFFICIAL REPORT. GEN, DAVIDSON'S OFFICIAL REPORTS.

HEADQUARTER'S TRIRD ERIGADE, SECTE'S DIVISION.

Jump near Lee's Mill, Warwick hiver, Va., April 12, 1862.

D. CARCE Assistant Adiation General: Having been directed by the General com-

I am, Sir. your obedient servant.
J. W. DAVIDSON, Brigadier-General.

ARMY AND NAVY.

The closing of most of the volunteer rendervous regular army. The various offices in this city booked upward of 30 men last week, which is more than in this place this afternoon. We got here this morndouble the weekly average of the last three months; and, in addition to this, the applicants generally

compact the k

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

Details of the Skirmish Under Gen. Reno.

Via Baltimone, Staurday, April 26, 1963. till noon to-day.

A schooner was overhauled at 8 o'clock this morn ing, by the steam gunboat Cobasset, on suspicion of mpt to run the blockade and enter Elizabeth City. The captain was taken on board the Minnesots, and stated that he was bound for Hatterns Inlet. He had a cargo of beef and pork, etc. His papers were taken from him.

A flag of truce to-day returned with the scho Mississippi, which brought down from Norfolk, yesterday, 17 Union prisoners wounded at the battle of South Mills, the location of the engagement of last Saturday, previously reported.

The Union troops consisted of parts of five regiments, the 21st Massachusetts, the 51st Pennsylvania, the 9th New-York, the 80th New-York, and the 6th New-Hampshire, under the command of Gen. Reno, numbering five or six hundred mon. They landed below Elizabeth City, and marched up to the canal without opposition. The object of the movement was to break up the locks. The engagement took place during the afternoon, and the Rebels were driven from the field. Late in the evening it was known that the Robels were receiving re-enforcecente, and Gen. Reno retired during the night.

No transportation having been provided for the wounded, they were left in a temporary hospital, and Assistant Surgeon Warren of the 21st Massachusetts was detailed to remain with them.

Several others, who were only slightly wounded, left with the other troops, among them Col. Hawkins, wounded in the left breast or shoulders. The wounded men, on their arrival here, were taken to the General Hospital, and properly cared for. They complain that while they were in the hands of the enemy they did not have enough to eat, but were otherwise properly taken care of. The following are the names of the wounded:

at. Lewis Hallman, Sist Pennsylvania, Co. D; in the left W. W. Done, 21st Massachusetts, Company C; in the fore B. Brown 21st Massachusetts, Company O; in the right r. Kelly, 9th New-York, Company E; to the right side.

Abraham Custor, 51st Pennsylvania, Company C; in the bb S. Buskirk, 51st Pennsylvania, Company H; in the Assistant Surgeon Warren of the 21st Massachusetts, detailed to attend the wounded, accompanied

Capt. W. M. Bartlett, Acting Lieutenaut-Colonel of the 20th Massachusetts Regiment, was shot before Yorktown on Wednesday, and has had his left leg amputated. He came to Baltimore this morning, and is doing well.

FORTERS MONROZ, Saturday, April 26, 1002.

Harper's Weekly, on its arrival here this morning, was seized by Major Jones, on account of objectionable editorials and a map of the vicinity of York-

A flag of truce to Crancy Island to-day took up a number of letters for prisoners and others at the South, and also the Secretary of the Spanish Legaion at Washington.

The weather is disagreeable. Wind N. E. All the yards and lower masts of the Galena have been taken out, and nothing can be seen above deck but the smoke-stack.

WOUNDED FROM PITTSBURG LANDING. Pirrisevens, Pa., April 27, 1082.
The steamer Marengo and Hailman, sent from this city to Pitesburg Landing, returned to-day with 70 wounded, who were placed in the Marine Hospital. The boats started with nearly 500, all of whom were left at points on the river near their homes. Among the wounded are two Rebel prisoners.

FROM McDOWELL'S ADVANCE.

LETTER FROM A SOLDIER. DEAR BROTHER: Your letter and map found me ing after a long and weary march. We left Camp

Capt L. D. Cause Anticons distant General commanding the division to farnish a report of the operations of my brigade from the 5th inst, to the present time, I respectfully state as follows:

The advance of 'le division from Young's Mill was formed by my brigade, the 7th Maine, Col. Mason commanding, being deployed as a line of skirmishers in front, with a section of Kennedy's battery, Lisut. Cowan, following the road. The 35d New-York, Lisut. Cowan, following the road. The 35d New-York Lisut. Col. Alberger, in the order named, moving in roar of this nature, and the 49th New-York Lisut. Col. Alberger, in the order named, moving in roar of this nature, and the following in column.

About four miles from Young's Mill, at 11 a. m., the enemy a plekets were diven in, exchanging or assignment, has taken charge of the renderyons of this regiment, has taken charge of the renderyons of the position of the enemy is placed. The 35d Maine, as distinguishers, and a mile further on, through dense woods, we came in sight of an open space of the position of the enemy is placed. The position of the enemy is placed and the second of the position of the enemy is placed and the second of the position of the enemy is placed. The second of the position of the enemy is placed and the second of the position of the enemy is placed. The second of the position of the enemy is placed and the second of the position of the enemy is placed. The second of the enemy is placed to Called States infantry, will lead to the following and the cavalry and the regiments of infantry. We had marched to Cattlet's Station, and track. It was a very rough march. In fact, it is the regiments. In fact, it is the roughest. In fact, it is the religion of the scholar lead to the Sth and 12th Infantry, to be stated to Cattlet's Station, and track. It was a very rough march. In fact, it is the religion of the scholar lead to the Sth and 12th Infantry in the read track. It was a very rough march. In fact, it is the religion to the sch and 12th Infantry. In fact, i Progress on last Tuesday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, and